We need your e-mail

It's no secret. Electronic mail is changing the way we do business. Like many other organizations, ASSE is increasingly using e-mail as a primary method of communicating with members. For example, starting this year, some issues of Society Update will be available only online. And, eventually, we'll be sending your practice specialty newsletters to you via e-mail. So, it's vital that we have your current e-mail address in our database.

Please respond by Mar. 31

If you haven't already done so, please send your e-mail address to customerservice@asse.org. Please include your name and member number or zip code in your message.
